Dear Members of Chabad of Plano,

Shalom! We hope this letter finds you in good health and enjoying the slower pace of the summer. As we celebrate the 32nd year of Chabad of Plano, we are filled with immense gratitude for each and every one of you.

In Jewish tradition, numbers hold deep significance, and this year's numerical value of 32, "lev" in Hebrew, meaning "heart," resonates strongly with us. The heart serves as the life source for the body, pumping vitality and energy to every part. Similarly, our mission at Chabad of Plano is to be the pulsating heart - the life source of all things Jewish, both for our members and the wider Jewish community.

IMPORTANT! In these challenging times, it is important to acknowledge that Chabad's cost of operations will increase due to inflation. Nevertheless, in consideration of your rising costs of living, we have decided not to increase our membership fees this year. Our commitment to providing a warm and nurturing environment for all remains steadfast.

Today, as we reflect on the heart being the source of life, we are reminded of how each one of you contributes to the beating heart of our Chabad community. Your love, support, and dedication fuel our mission and ensure that we remain a vibrant and thriving center of Jewish life in Plano. Together, we form the very essence of Chabad, uniting to create a community that fosters growth, learning, and connection.

As we embark on the new year of 5784, may it be filled with joyous celebrations, meaningful learning, and spiritual growth with joy and gladness of heart!

With deep appreciation and warm regards,

Rabbi and Rivkie Block
